"LA PARISIA"

HESITATION VALSE

GEORGE L. COBB

Copyright MCMXIV by Charles I. Davis, Cleveland, O.
Entered according to the Act of Parliament of Canada in the year MCMXIV by Charles I. Davis in the Department of Agriculture.
Words by J. GUINAN

Moderato

A rose and a violet in flower-land
One morn to the garden a fair maid came,

Grew side by side in a garden grand. The rose fell in love with the Softly she's humming a love refrain. She pluck'd from the violet the one violet blue. And he kissed from her lips each morn the dew, loved best. As she pinned the rose to her pretty dress.