Tanguay Tangle.

Lyric by Blanche Merrill.

Music by Leo Edwards.

Moderato.

Oh don't you hear that band,
Oh when you hear this tune,
I love the tune you see,
Cause it was named for You find that pretty grand,
soon,
You're jiggling funny jigs,
You're wiggling funny

Copyright MCMXII by Chas. H. Harris.
Rights for Mechanical Instruments Reserved.
International Copyright Secured. me, it thrills me with a chill, it wigs. your feet they start to swing, in chills me with a thrill, i'd like to float on every to a high-land fling, and then you spring a buck and note, up to the land of "can't keep still" ing, and as you wing your wing you sing.

chorus.

let me dance oh let me let me prance, i want to hear my feet go pit-ter pat-ter pat-ter pat.  Hear them ratt-le with a rat-tat rat-tat  Don't want to stop,  nev-er nev-er want to stop.  'Cause it's the Tan-guay Tan-gle and of course you know.  That's the rea-son Eva loves it so.  Oh Say Can't you see it's the star Span-gle Tangle And like the flag I keep a-waving, my feet keep mis-behav-ing While I'm do-ing this tangled Tangle.