First system of a piano score. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. A dynamic marking of mf is present.

Second system of a piano score. It features a first ending bracket labeled '1' and a second ending bracket labeled '2'. The right hand has a more active melodic line. A dynamic marking of ff is present.

Third system of a piano score. The right hand continues with a melodic line, and the left hand has a steady accompaniment. There are accents (v) over some notes in the right hand.

Fourth system of a piano score. The right hand has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the left hand continues with a rhythmic accompaniment.

Fifth system of a piano score. It includes first and second ending brackets labeled '1' and '2'. The right hand has a melodic line with accents (v). The system concludes with a D.C. (Da Capo) instruction.

"While the Convent Bells Were Ringing."

THE NEW SONG HIT by the Author of "MY LITTLE GEORGIA ROSE."

A beautiful ballad by the author of the following songs which are everybody's favorites: "My Little Georgia Rose," "My Heart's To-night in Texas," "When the Birds Go North Again," and many others. Don't fail to play over this melody. It's the season's greatest Hit.

CHORUS.

con espressione.

While the Con-vent bells were ring-ing, soft and sweet a-cross the sea, . . .

And the twi-light shades were fall-ing, then she said "Good-bye" to me;

As the sun went down in splend-or, then I kissed her lips so ten-der,

While the Con-vent bells were ring-ing o-ver the sea. . . .
